World History Unit Activities

Requirements

Coupled with unique discussions, debates, and lectures, Dr. Hartnell takes a “well-rounded” approach to effectively engage his students and ensures they have a say in their learning! Students are provided a wonderful opportunity to enrich their course experience by completing various assignments and projects as each unit unfolds.

This packet discusses what students should have completed by the end of the unit. Students have total control over how they accumulate 300 of the unit’s 400 points (that’s 75%!) by selecting the activities that best fit their styles of learning. All of this can be found at DrHartnell.com/wh-units.html.

Pathways Packet

Complete reading assignments and answer the EQs in the Pathways Packet.

Common Lit Articles

Read fascinating Common Lit Articles that go deeper into the subject material.

Alternate Books

Read a book and hold a “book group” with Dr. Hartnell and other students.

Unit Movies

Watch a movie and conduct a “Siskel & Ebert” styled movie review with classmates.

Mini-Projects

Write poetry and music, create art, or use social media to complete Mini-Projects.

Big Projects

Tie the entire unit together by creating an all-encompassing Big Project.

Pathways Packet

During the unit, students need to complete the reading assignments, reading questions, and EQs found in the Pathways Packet.

Reading assignments come from the course textbook, which can be accessed on-line through Hartnell University by visiting DrHartnell.com/wh-textbook.html. Students may also use one of the textbooks kept in the classroom.

Material for the EQs comes from class lectures, discussions, and the unit notes, which can be found at DrHartnell.com/wh-units.html.

Students earn 75 points for successfully (and correctly) completing the Pathways Packet.

Mini-Projects

During the unit, students will need to complete TWO Mini-Projects from Dr. Hartnell's approved list. These Mini-Projects are hyperlinked from the tab "Mini-Projects" found at DrHartnell.com/wh-units.html.

This list is not all encompassing, and students are permitted to pitch Dr. Hartnell a suggestion and/or different Mini-Project idea. That being said, these need to be approved prior to completion and submission.

Students earn 50 points for completing their Mini-Projects (25 points each) and are able to complete a third Mini-Project for up to 10 bonus points.

Big Projects

During the unit, students will need to complete ONE Big Project from Dr. Hartnell's approved list. These Big Projects are hyperlinked from the tab "Big Projects" found at DrHartnell.com/wh-units.html.

This list is not all encompassing, and students are permitted to pitch Dr. Hartnell a suggestion and/or different Big Project idea. That being said, these need to be approved prior to completion and submission.

Students earn 100 points for completing their Big Project.

Common Lit Articles

During the unit, students will need to read a total of FIVE Common Lit articles. These readings are hyperlinked from the tab "Common Lit Articles" found at DrHartnell.com/wh-units.html. Since many units cover multiple historical events, students will be asked to pick articles from specific topics (for instance, pick three articles about the Reformation, etc.). Students must complete the Discussion Questions.

Students earn 50 points for successfully (and correctly) completing these Common Lit articles.

Unit Movies

During the unit, students will need to watch a movie picked from Dr. Hartnell's approved list found at DrHartnell.com/wh-units.html. They may watch it at home or during a work day in class. Students will complete the coordinating movie review and submit it for 25 points.

Alternate Books

(OPTIONAL) Students can opt out of doing the Big Project and one of the Mini-Projects by reading an "Alternate Book" picked from Dr. Hartnell's approved list found at DrHartnell.com/wh-units.html. Students will complete the coordinating book review and conduct a "book group" discussion with Dr. Hartnell and other students that elected to do the same.

This "Bonus Book" counts for 125 points. The other 25 points comes from one Mini-Project that still needs to be completed.
