NOTE: If you are NOT permitted to watch R-rated movies, do NOT pick a movie that is rated as such. This assignment is NOT giving you permission to watch R-rated movies if you are not allowed (nice try!). If your parents/guardians permit you to do so, then so be it. For this reason, I made sure to also include PG, PG-13, and Made-For-TV movies in the list. I have provided links to the Internet Movie Database (IMDb) so you can see what it is rated, read reviews, and watch trailers to determine if this is a film you are allowed to watch (or want to watch).

What are Movie Reviews?

Most of these movies are available for free on any number of streaming services or on-line. Please do NOT feel as though you need to purchase or pay money to rent a movie. If you have questions, concerns, or issues finding a movie, please let me know. (That being said, do NOT wait until the day everything is due to tell me you were unable to find a movie.)

Once you have viewed your movie, write up a review in a Google Doc by answering the Movie Review questions (found on the next two pages). You earn 20 points for completing the Movie Review.

Director: Steven Spielberg

As the American Civil War continues to rage, America's president struggles with continuing carnage on the battlefield as he fights with many inside his own cabinet on the decision to emancipate the slaves.

I have rounded up as many different kinds of movies to cover a range of topics that fit the material for each unit. This includes movies about war, social justice, everyday life, sports, science, etc.

My movie lists contain between 30-60 titles per unit. However, if there is a film that you do not see on the list that you would like for me to watch and add, please let me know! I love a good movie!

The Movie Review contains six total sections:

1. Initial Response
2. Popular Culture
3. Quality
4. Narrative
5. Themes
6. Verdict

Each section contains five specific questions pertaining to that topic.

You can copy and paste the questions from the review sheet and type your answers underneath. You can put more than one section on the same page OR you place each on its own page.

You MUST indicate WHICH movie you have selected by typing the title at the top.

when watching the movie

You do NOT need to use color, although doing such can make things easier to find, etc.

How do I submit Movie Reviews?

Properly submitting Movie Reviews is very important. These steps MUST be followed or the assignment will be returned!

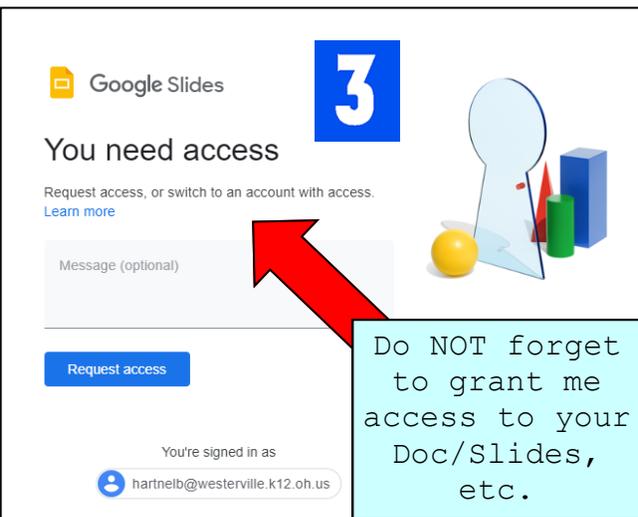

When you share Google Docs or Google Slides, follow the prompts and use your period, unit, and the assignment category (Mini-Project, Big Project, Movie Review, etc.) as the new name.

After selecting my name, be sure to type the specific project choice in the message box (or in this case, the name of the movie). Do not make me guess what you are sharing!

If you e-mail, use the same details in the subject (period, unit, category). Type the name of the movie as the text of the e-mail. Remember the attachment!

Do NOT forget to grant me access to your Doc/Slides, etc.
